INDEPENDENT TICKETS.—We are sorry to see so many men, claiming to be thoroughgoing in their loyalty, attempting to gratify their ambition at the expense of the regular Union nominees. In Clackamas county, Mr A. Lovejoy is out for State Senator in opposition to Mr (H. W. Eddy) the regular nominee of the Union party. And this is in the face of a full Democratic ticket, the friends of which will march to the polls in solid phalanx deposit their copperhead ballots, and perhaps, in consequence of a bolt from the Union nomination secure a victory! Is there loyalty in this? Will not the record of that professing Union man or clique, through whose obstinacy the party is defeated, be justly written in characters more damning than that of the loud mouthed traitor who [illegible] stands for the South and puts the friends of the Union on their guard? Let [illegible] fellow citizens be entrapped by any effort of pretended zealots for the Union and the Administration when "rule or ruin" is their motto and they evince a disposition to fight their loyal neighbors, giving victory to the copperheads if they cannot win it for themselves. This game is being played in more than one county in this State, and unless the good loyal men stand shoulder to shoulder, ignoring petty jealousies, forgetting disappointment and true to principles, they will find in more than one instance that they have [illegible] traitors in disguise, and aided [illegible] overthrow the Government and [illegible] of their country! Vote the Regular Union Ticket and victory is ours

[illegible] PETITION.—We are in receipt of a communication signed "A Voter," in which the writer expresses a "desire to see the petition [illegible] in this city asking Holbrook, Tracey and Risley, to run independent for the Legislature." He offers to "pay the expense of its publication, with the names attached," [illegible] having been "informed by those who profess to know, that the petition referred to was signed by thirty one persons."

We would willingly oblige "A Voter," and [illegible] who are anxious to see the said petition with the signatures attached, were it in our power but neither the proprietor nor the present editor of the OREGONIAN have ever seen the coveted document, nor is it known to either of them who is its custodian. At some future period doubtless, the petition and signatures will become accessible to us and the public. We sincerely deprecate the existence of any such "bone of contention." We cannot endorse any "independent" or other movement which is calculated—by claims true or false,—to weaken the Union majority which should be rolled up at the ballot box on Monday night. It is wrong in principle, and if, as is claimed by its title, it could by any possibility be called an Independent Union Ticket, it is far from politic. No thoroughly loyal man can recognize more than one straight Union ticket, and with howsoever many mental reservations, he may speak his opinion of the rest, his ballot must be cast with an earnest view to their defeat as disloyal. A party divided against itself cannot stand any more than can a house, and therefore some motive stronger than Union sentiment must actuate those who would interpose an obstacle to the fullest success of the Union cause. The demand for the publication of the said petition is just and right, it should be regarded as a public document, if the public are expected to vote for the persons named and petitioned therein. The people have a right to know by whom the loyalty of a ticket thus selected is avouched for, especially after so many rumors have been afloat and are daily acquiring credibility that it is a covert design of an open enemy

The Government cavalry depot at St. Louis is an immense establishment. Since October last 17,549 horses have been purchased at 130 dollars each making an outlay of over $2 200,000, and the stalls for the animals number over 7 000. The number of horses now on hand is 3 700. A camp of instruction is attached to the depot

A large barn, belonging to Reuben Streithoff, six miles east of Albany, was burned down on Friday last

EUROPEAN DESIGNS ON THIS CONTINENT.—The seizure of the Chincha Islands by the Spanish Admiral Pinzon, and the novel principles which he advances in his manifesto to sustain that arbitrary act afford another field for curious speculation to the American mind. There are moreover, circumstances connected with this seizure which at the present moment, force us into a train of reasoning that arrives at a conclusion calculated if not to alarm at least to excite grave interest amongst our countrymen. Is this seizure consequent on a compact entered into between France and Spain? Is France in consideration that she shall be quietly permitted to steal the Mexican Empire to give moral aid to Old Spain so that she may resubjugate her ancient dominions in South America? When the foreign diplomats at Lima held a meeting for the purpose of protesting against the seizure the French Chargé refused to be present. Is it not proper to infer that his Government had already given him an outline of its purpose and its relations with Spain as regards this continent and that he merely obeyed instructions? It is certainly singular that the present moment should be seized by those two Powers to violate the Monroe Doctrine, unless a scheme of immense scope in relation to this continent, had been agreed upon by the leading European Powers. England builds ships and furnishes arms to the South in order to cripple the American Government and secure disunion, France takes advantage of our domestic difficulties to plant a puppet Emperor on a new made Mexican throne and now comes in Spain, the effete and superannuated relic of a once powerful nation, and seizes territory in South America! Have the Powers of Europe determined to unscogenate their tottering empires by taking to themselves new empires on this continent? Or is Louis Napoleon looking forward to the time when America will insist, not in words but in deeds, on the Monroe Doctrine, and speedily drawing other European powers into a similar position, so as to fortify himself? If Spain, on a pretext of claims, may seize Peru, why may not England on the same pretext, seize Guatemala, San Salvador Honduras, Nicaragua, and Costa Rica? Why not Austria seize all the country lying south of the Isthmus of Darien and east of the Andes, and Spain seize all that lying west? Claims are easily made. At present, it seems not at all important whether they be valid or not, so they be proclaimed such, the right of seizure must follow. Under the new doctrine, a powerful nation has but to declare to a weaker one "Instantly satisfy these claims according to my terms, or I will seize you!" The terms are of course made impossible, and the seizure naturally follows. So it was with France and Mexico, so it was with Spain and Peru, and so it will doubtless be with Great Britain et als and the balance of Spanish America. But this sort of thing—founded in injustice and robbery—cannot survive the restoration of peace to the United States. Happily, everything betokens that time rapidly approaching, and then a united people will show the powers of Europe that the Monroe Doctrine is not a mere wordy declaration, but a principle as necessary almost to the political existence of our empire as Union itself, and to be fought for with equal desperation and worthy of as great sacrifices.—S. F. Call

ANOTHER LIE NAILED.—The Review of week before last published a foul slander on our candidate for Congress. It may have been imposed upon by some correspondent and the "attorney," If so it will have the honesty to publish the following statement of Col. I. R. Moores, which appears in the Statesman

SALEM, May 18, 1864

Mr Henderson bought a pair of colts at the sale of my father's estate for about $180 and after the note became due he paid $100 in gold on it and sometime afterwards Mr H received a payment from the United States Government in greenbacks at par. At that time this currency was circulating at par in Eugene City then Mr H. paid off the balance in currency, to Mr Ellsworth of Eugene who was the collecting agent. But at the time of this payment greenbacks were worth but ninety cents on the dollar in Salem. This was made known to Mr H. and without any solicitation he forwarded the deficiency to make the greenbacks as good as gold

I. R. MOORES

A card in relation to the above, denying its authenticity, having appeared in the Statesman, the following communication was sent us last evening

"ANOTHER LIE NAILED" AND CLINCHED

EDITOR OREGONIAN

In the Statesman of yesterday, (May 30,) N. T. Caton undertakes to make good certain false statements which he had put in circulation at Silverton and other places in Marion and Polk counties, relative to Mr Henderson, the Union candidate for Congress, and as that paper will not publish another issue until the election day, you will confer a favor on the Union cause by stating that Col. I. R. Moores says that Caton's article is a bundle of falsehoods and misrepresentations. Judge Boise Major Magone and Samuel Allen all heard Col Moores say that he did sign his name to the statement published in the Statesman of the 23d inst over his signature. And I now promise to have Caton's lie not only nailed but clinched in the next issue of the Statesman

L. P. HENDERSON

STATE ITEMS.—We clip the following items from the Oregon Statesman of May 31st:

We learn by letter from Roseburg that Mr H. G. Reinhard, a merchant of that place, died on the 27th inst., from the effects of a heavy dose of strychnine administered by his own hand two days previous. He suffered severely from the time of swallowing the poison. He took twelve grains

A man named Woodruff residing in the neighborhood of the Post at Grand Ronde, was accidentally shot by his little son a few days since. The boy fired at a skunk in the road and the ball bounding from the ground, struck his father in the back who was riding along some distance off. The wound is a severe one, but is thought not dangerous

The dwelling house of Mr Joshua Bowen about two miles and a half west of Silverton, was burned to the ground last Thursday at midday—everything in the house consumed

Mr Amos Harvey who has been a sub agent at the Alsea Indian Agency, has been appointed full agent and will be stationed at Grand Ronde. Mr G. W. Collins takes his place at Alsea

We learn by letter received from Roseburg that a little boy two years old, a son of Mr Gilliland of Deer Creek, fell into a kettle of hot water on the 16th inst, and was so badly scalded that he died in a few minutes

The State Journal notices the arrival of a party from Canyon City by way of the McKenzie trail—making the trip in twelve days. They found the trail in good condition and plenty of feed in the Cascades and had no difficulty in crossing the snow

The latest news seems to leave Beauregard at Petersburg strongly reinforced, but with no means of getting to Richmond unless he goes on foot and can whip Butler on the way

John West has been appointed P M at Westport, Clatsop county, and the office at Liberty, Benton county, has been discontinued

The women of Utah have recently altered the orthography of that creed. They now spell it Moreman

THADDEUS STEVENS DEFINES HIS POSITION.—The correspondent of the Sacramento Union writing from Washington April 12th, gives the following passage in the Congressional career of the leader of the House, when the utterances of the Copperhead Long were under discussion

There was a profound hush in the great hall when Thaddeus Stevens, of Pennsylvania just from a sick bed, arose like a column of iron, in his place and proceeded to say that he had learned that during his absence from the Hall an attempt had been made by some body to compare his position on the status of the so called seceded States with that of the member now upon trial for treasonable utterances in this chamber. He then briefly stated his own position which was that he held that the so called Confederate States having seceded and a de facto Government, had committed a great crime which made them outlaws and placed them beyond the protecting ægis of the Constitution, in addition to the ordinary usage of war we ought to proceed against them as against a conquered people, to confiscate their property real and personal that they had no rights save such as could be accorded them by the extremest stretch of the laws of war worse than a foreign nation—they should be pursued to utter subjugation by fire and sword. At these words there was an irrepressible burst of applause which the Speaker, (Rollins, of New Hampshire, in the chair) could not restrain. "And yet," continued Stevens with one of his grim sneers "it has been said by members upon this floor that those who would recognize the so-called Southern Confederacy by treaty occupy the same position as myself!"

At this Cox, who had been wriggling on his seat in pain bounced up and tried to ring in a speech of disclaimer, but Stevens, with magnificent disdain, waved him down with "The gentleman from Ohio need not explain. I do not refer to him, I do not even know who made those speeches. I did not know that he had made any speech." Cox again interposed with a request that he might give a quotation from one of Stevens' speeches. "Aye aye," thundered Thad "I know how easy it is for the devil to quote scripture to pervert it!" Another burst of applause, and Cox, enraged beyond control shook his fist and gesticulated wildly at Stevens who stood motionless as a rock amidst the storm which raged around him for a moment. Cox was not allowed to say one word more, and Stevens proceeded to define his own position, saying that the so called Confederacy was a belligerent de facto through treason, and should be punished by fire and sword. Whoever would link him with the infamous carcass now before the consideration of the House was a fool or a knave—perhaps both TRAITORS AND FREEDOM OF SPEECH.—In the following passage from the speech of H. Winter Davis, delivered in the United States House of Representatives, April 11th, on the resolution for the expulsion of Long, he well rebukes those who claim, like the Copperhead press in this State, entire freedom of speech for spoken treason. Davis appears to entertain the opinion, which we think quite a sound one, that the freedom spoken of screens no traitors. He says.

The question which we are bound as gentlemen and legislators to determine is, whether a gentleman, acknowledged to be respectable, believed to be sincere, entertaining and avowing purposes which do not differ from those of the chief of the rebel Confederacy, or of men in armed array beyond the Potomac, bent on ejecting us from this hall, is the companion of gentlemen here, a fit depositary of his constituents vote, a safe person to be entrusted here with the secrets of the United States, a worthy guardian of the existence of the republic. Are we to be seriously told that the freedom of speech screens a traitor because he puts his treasonable purposes in words? Does the Constitution secure the right of our avowed enemies to vote in this hall? May a man impudently declare that his purpose here is so to vote as to promote the success of the rebellion, to embarrass and paralyze the Government in its suppression to secure its triumph and our overthrow, to bring the armed enemy to Washington, or arrest our army lest it should exterminate that enemy? Then why do not the Congress at Richmond adjourn to Washington, push us from our stools, and by parliamentary tactics under the Constitution, arrest the wheels of Government? You could not expel them! Sir that picture is history, recent history. In 1860, that side of the House swarmed with the avowed enemies of the republic. One after one, as their stars dropped from the firmament of the Union, they went out, some with tears in their eyes over the misery they were about to inflict; some of them with exultation at the coming calamities, some of them with contemptuous lectures to members in the hall, some stayed behind to do the traitor's business in the disguise of honest legislators in both Houses as long as they dared. One disgraced the Senate for one long session after armed men were soaking their native soil with their blood, and now he is fighting in the ranks of our enemies

THE EARTHQUAKE.—The earthquake at San Francisco, May 20th, is reported as the severest ever felt. The Call says

This region of terra firma yesterday experienced a number of shakes, some of which were almost imperceptible, while others were regular stunners. The first occurred at about 1 o'clock, and was distinctly observed by those who were in their offices engaged in writing, but by those in the streets it was unperceived. At 5 o'clock the chill came on again and it was felt by a great number, but when it was repeated at 6 o'clock the entire community was satisfied that something was the matter. There were five or six distinct shocks, each apparently more severe than the preceding one, and the whole extending over about fifteen seconds of time. When the shock was first felt, it was so severe as to alarm nearly everybody, and the manner in which the people came pouring into the streets was a caution to cripples. Each one, when he or she reached the corner of the street instinctively turned and looked back to see if the house was falling. The walls of many houses were cracked, and glass in windows shaken to pieces while glass fixtures swayed like the pendulum of a clock

SPOTTSYLVANIA.—Lippincott's Gazetteer furnishes the following information about Spottsylvania the battle ground occupied by the contending forces of Grant and Lee

Spottsylvania a county in the east part of Virginia has an area of 400 square miles. The Rappahannock forms the boundary on the north east the North Anna river on the south west and the Mattapony rises within its limits. The surface is pleasantly diversified with hill and dale. The gold mines were worked in this county in 1836 granite and fire stone are plenty. A canal about 40 miles long has been opened along the Rappahannock above the falls and the county is intersected by the Richmond and Potomac Railroad. The Rappahannock affords valuable water power at Fredericksburg. It was organized in 1720, and was named in honor of Alexander Spottswood at the time Governor of Virginia. Population 14 911 of whom 7 481 were slaves. Spottsylvania Court House is the capital of the county

HOW THE NEW YORK COPPERHEADS WERE LURED ON TO SUBSCRIBE TO THE SWORD TO McCLELLAN.—Wilkes' New York Spirit of the Times of the 30th April says

The most ingenious device practised at the late Sanitary Fair, to induce [illegible] secessionists and Copperheads to part with their money in aid of the Patriotic Fund was the artful device of inviting them to contribute to the popularity of the [illegible] to endow him with a sword. The result was that the New York Hotel, the Mayor's office and the riotous districts of the Eighteenth Ward were kept in a perfect ferment for three weeks in collecting dollars to impart a false endorsement to their [illegible] chieftain. The effort was closely watched by loyal citizens and though the vote was in [illegible] the time permitted to be slightly in favor of McClellan there never was a moment when Grant could not have been put over whelmingly ahead. The object was however to keep stimulating the disloyal vote by alternate times and thus to drain the [illegible] far from sources that would otherwise keep dry. The final result was the final contribution of $[illegible] to the Sanitary Fund in the name of McClellan of which probably not more than $3 000 represented spontaneous sentiment or sincerely loyal votes. The Copperheads made great calculations on the moral influence of the verdict which they fancied they would capture in McClellan's favor and [illegible] to make it felt with the masses throughout the country. They will now of course assume that the [illegible] was no test and [illegible] the friends of [illegible] and of the other Generals who [illegible] with Grant's vote will cheerfully agree with them. The sole object was to get the Copperhead element [illegible] to [illegible] the charity and [illegible] the reserve fund [illegible] had been quietly collected no [illegible] swamped out the McClellan vote by more than two to one. The final counting gave Grant a more majority than the hero of the Chickahominy, and thus ended the [illegible] putting the Copperheads to the sword

OREGON RAILROAD SURVEY.—We are informed by Colonel Barry that [illegible] has his party nearly ready and will start for the [illegible] within the next ten days, where he will commence again in the Railroad survey for an Oregon branch of the Pacific Railroad. He has secured the services of James M. Curley, Esq as Chief of Engineers and Topographer who will have charge of the operations in the field and note the topography of the country. Mr Curley is distinguished in his profession and his well known scientific ability is a sufficient guarantee that the results of the survey will be reliable.

The party will be composed of eight men the names of all of whom we do not now remember. W. J. Plymale Esq will accompany Col Barry as an assistant and his well known energy and extensive acquaintance in the Willamette Valley will render his services valuable. If time and circumstances permit it is the intention to push the survey through to Puget Sound, this season. It is unnecessary for us to notice this praiseworthy undertaking further at present. Nearly every one is familiar with its object and purposes. The people of Oregon must move in earnest soon, if they ever expect to derive any benefit from the great Pacific Railroad. We must have a branch road to Oregon. There are now two bills before Congress each providing for a branch to Oregon. It is not probable that both will become laws granting aid to two branches to Oregon. Which, then shall the influence of our State be cast for? The one running from Salt Lake to the navigable waters of the Columbia river, or the one running from Marysville, California, to Portland Oregon or shall a compromise line be advocated, running from Lassen's Meadows to Portland. There are questions which are now engaging the attention of those who look ahead to a glorious future for Oregon and Col. Barry's survey is intended to call attention to them and aid in settling them.—Jacksonville Sentinel

Mr O Meara took occasion to say, very unnecessarily in a speech at Scio on the 14th instant that he thanked God that he had not a drop of loyal blood in his veins and that he thought the word loyalty ought to be stricken from the Democratic vocabulary. There is not an idiot in Oregon so imbecile as to mistake O Meara for a loyal citizen and nobody suspects that the Democratic party is otherwise than thoroughly disloyal.—Statesman

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine

A CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast that he is about to close his business with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession

As it is his intention during the ensuing Fall to leave the United States for the purpose of visiting Europe he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July 1864. Those therefore who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time. Dr Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand. Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr Czapkay before the first day of June 1864 whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public Dr Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him and the confidence reposed in his professional ability

During his residence in California, Dr Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty-five thousand patients, which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with a success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr Czapkay in his Institute and the good will of his business, may make application and state proposals

Returns from Owyhee.—Lloyd Brooke, Esq, of this city, has just returned from an extended visit to the mines of the upper country, and the results of his observation seems to be that the Owyhee will soon become the most noted mining camp on the Pacific slope. Two of the towns that have been laid out on the banks of the Jordan are flourishing finely, and have a prospect for much prominence in future. The surface diggings are principally confined to Jordan creek, and are being worked to good advantage. The number of ledges that are already discovered, are enough to put Owyhee far in advance of any camp known at present, as soon as the mills and machinery for working them, can reach that locality. Mr Brooke brought with him some rich specimens of rock, one of which, from the Morning Star lode, weighing but little over two ounces, yielded 27 cents' worth of pure silver, and is estimated to be worth one dollar and sixty-four cents per pound. Tracy & King made the assays, at their office in this city, and also run a "button," made from rock out of the Crane and Driggs lode, into a bar showing a value in gold of $222 21 and of silver $22 32. We cannot fail in our estimate of the worth of the "northern mines." Boise, South Boise, Owyhee, Canyon, and the innumerable other districts, all present an extensive field for the miner, but it will take a large amount of capital to place the quartz working on a paying basis, which now there seems to a fair prospect of doing. Our own capitalists having taken the lead, will direct the steps of others.

The Fourth of July.—Our neighbors in the surrounding towns are already making arrangements to celebrate the coming anniversary of our National Independence, and why should not Portland do the same? We hope new glories may be infused into the occasion of an observance of the day this year, by the stirring movements of Grant's army, and the celebration made doubly interesting. At Hillsboro the day will be properly observed, as the posters have announced, Hon. Amory Holbrook will deliver the oration.

Delayed.—The bark Industry, Capt. Corno, delayed sailing this morning in order to take additional consignments of freight from the upper Willamette, which will arrive by boat from Oregon City to day. The cargo of the Industry will be decidedly a model cargo, all of Oregon produce, and such a one as we hope to see leaving our wharves very frequently in future—a thing which might occur at least every two weeks, and then not create a famine in our midst, if the vacant soil was made to produce it.

New Arrangement.—Capt. Holman, of the steamer John H. Couch, has been refitting his craft painting, etc, and now has accommodations in order, with state rooms and berths, for the convenience of passengers. During the hot weather a trip to Astoria on the steamer would be very pleasant and comfortable, and as persons with their families can pass at reduced rates, under the present [illegible], no doubt very many will avail themselves of the opportunity.

A Lunatic.—A few days since a man made his appearance in this city from some part of the valley, and announced himself as an independent candidate for Congress. It turns out that the man was a lunatic, and has been taken to Salem for safe keeping, but was not accepted by the officers, and was turned loose again. His friends have provided him a place at the humane institution of Drs Hawthorne & Loryea, in East Portland.

An Active Day.—The streets yesterday presented a very active appearance. A larger number of teams were in from the country than for any day previous during the present season, most all of which were well loaded with grain, and domestic produce, which was selling at good prices. The merchants, shippers and draymen were all actively employed, and seemed to inspire the whole community with cheerfulness.

Freight from the Dalles.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt brought from the Dalles yesterday about four hundred hides, two wagons and several horses. At this season of the year this very uncommon for an occurrence of this character, as most of the freight coming from that quarter is in the shape of gold bullion.

Kootenai Gold.—We gave the result of an assay of gold dust from the Kootenai, a few days since, which gives it a predominance over other dust from the upper country. It is a dark colored scale gold, and resembles the Cariboo dust very much. Tracy & King have specimens on exhibition at their Assay office in this city.

Thunder Shower.—For the past week's heat and intolerable dust we were favored with a dry, cool and pleasant spell of weather yesterday, and at about nine o'clock last night a shower accompanied with thunder and vivid flashes of lightning, seldom witnessed in these parts.

No Dispatches.—We are without our regular dispatches again this morning, in consequence of the line being down beyond Eugene City. At a time when our readers are so anxious for the news it makes bad work for us, but it can't be helped and so we make the best of it.

Pretty Good.—Several quarters and dimes and a $2 50 gold piece, were picked up on the site of Parrish's new block yesterday. These pieces may have been there for many a year, and deposited at a time when "bits" were a greater nuisance than they now are.

County Court.—The County Court for Multnomah County, Judge Marquam, will be convened at the Court House on Monday morning next, and then adjourn until the election is over, meaning that it will meet on Tuesday morning for business.

The steamer to the Cascades yesterday carried 50 passengers and 125 tons of freight, and returned with 47 passengers and a small lot of freight.

Treasure.—The treasure received at the Express office of Wells Fargo & Co last evening amounts to $50,000.

The steamship will leave at 8 o'clock this morning, going by the way of Victoria to San Francisco.

Grand Union Rally Last Night.—A large and enthusiastic audience were in attendance at the Willamette Theater, where they listened to a speech of two hours and a half duration from the Hon J H Mitchell, in which he fully sustained his reputation as one of the best and most effective speakers in the State. After laying down the principles upon which the Government of the United States was based, he rapidly traced history down to the inception of the rebellion, quoting aptly and readily from the speeches of the Democracy during the months in which it assumed its present hideous form, showed in the language of Oregon's Democratic Senator that Jeff Davis, (who was inaugurated some weeks before Mr Lincoln), was no traitor but a patriot proved the past and present treason of the Democratic party, proved by affidavits the cunningly devised scheme now in progress to defeat the regular Union ticket in this county, and sustained, to the satisfaction of all present, the claims of the regular Union nominees to an election.

During his remarks he was frequently interrupted by enthusiastic applause. The meeting was a complete success, and will be renewed on Saturday evening, which we hope will be more pleasant, so that if all cannot get into the building it may be held in the open air.

Ewry.—A Chinaman in Umatilla advertises his business as a washerman. Ewry hails from California and about a year since it was noticed in the Sacramento Union that he was about the only enterprising John in the land. At that time Ewry was doing business at the Dalles. He has an advantage over other Johns by his foresight, and if he don't get rich it will be no fault of his.

Protection No. 4.—Regular Meeting this evening at 8 o clock precisely.
W T PATTERSON, Sec'y

Multnomah No. 2.—Regular Meeting this evening at 7½ P M.
W I. LEONARD, Sec'y

Editor Oregonian:

Sir—In view of the fact that statements have been made touching my loyalty, I am induced to make the following statement. I am and have ever been in favor of the vigorous prosecution of the war for the suppression of the rebellion and the perpetuity of the Union.

Catarrhal Cough.—This insidious and annoying symptom so difficult to treat, depends upon a subacute inflammation of the air passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

REDINGTON & CO, San Francisco,
ap26dawtf Agents for the Pacific Coast.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26d1m

Something about Silks, Hats and Paper Collars.—At the annual soiree of the Egremont Mechanics' Institutions, Sir Robert Brisco, Bart., (as we learn from an English paper,) made a speech in which he referred to some of the cheap but very useful articles manufactured at the present day. He said there were many ladies in that room who would be astonished when he told them that he had seen most beautiful silks—they must excuse the expression—offered at 2s. per yard. (Laughter.) If an article, then, could be produced so like silk, although it had not thread of silk in it, as to defy its spuriousness being detecting by the general buyer, surely that reflected great credit upon the intelligence and skill that produced such an article. (Hear, hear.)

Let them take another article, and that would be his own hat. (Laughter.) He did not intend [here Sir Robert began to brush his headpiece] to be cheap John, however. (Great laughter.) That hat resembled a silk hat, and was looked upon as such; yet there was not a particle of silk in its whole formation. It was made from a weed which grew in the marshes of India, called jute. It seemed to be a beautiful silk hat. He had worn it for two years, and it had only cost him 6s. 6d. (Laughter.) He was not ashamed to tell them its price, nor did he think it a disgrace to any man to wear any kind of a hat or other piece of dress, if it was decent, no matter what it cost. (Hear, hear.) Besides, it was a fact that it stood the damp from the sea air better than the best silk hat he could put upon his head. Well, as he had said, his hat was made from jute, that nasty article which they made nail bags with. (Laughter.) He had a pride in wearing that hat, and for this reason: it had given three times a much employment as the manufacture of a silk hat; it had given wages, it had given the means of living to many of his fellow-creatures. (Cheers.)

There was another article which he wore deserving his attention. Perhaps they would think he had dressed himself for the occasion. (Great laughter.) He would bet the young men present—the young dandies—(laughter)—who liked to have a neat collar, that the one he wore was as good as, if not better than any in the room. He did not believe there was a linen collar in the whole of Cumberland, equal to his. It was only paper. (Laughter.) He paid 8d. per dozen for these collars—(continued laughter)—and he would like to know where they would get a dozen washed for 8d., independent of the material altogether. (Roars of laughter.) These collars he knew from experience remained clean for a far longer time than the linen ones. A friend of his said to him one day—"I would like to see you out with your paper collar on a wet day." (Laughter.) He thought he might try the experiment, and consequently upon the first wet day that came he went out to see how his collar would stand the rain. After being well wet he returned home, and allowed the wet collar to remain on his neck. He then took it off, and was astonished to find that it was almost as clean as when he put it on. (Laughter.) Next day he put on a linen collar, and went out to put it to the same test as he had his paper collar. (Laughter.) When he returned and took it off, it was a shame to be seen. (Great laughter.) Some people were apt to say "The idea of wearing paper collars!" Why this was miserable vanity. He would wear anything that was decent, if it answered his purpose. (Hear, hear.) If that cheap silk of which he had been speaking looked as beautiful in ladies' dresses as the silk obtained from the scarce silk worm, was the lady who wore it not as respectably clothed as the one attired with the production of the worm? (Applause.)

A Great Traveler.—They have out in Atlanta, a hotel keeper named Thompson, who sees himself rather shrewd at a joke, but he meets his match, sometimes, as the the following will show:

A traveler called very late for his breakfast, and the meal was hurriedly prepared. Thompson, feeling that it was not quite up to the mark, made all sorts of apologies around the eater, who worked away in silence, never raised his head beyond the firmative influence of his fork, or by any act even acknowledged the presence of mine host. This sulky demeanor rather vexed the landlord, who changing the range of his battery, stuck his thumbs in his armholes, and said:

Now mister confound me if I hain't made all the apologies necessary, and more too, considering the breakfast, and who gets it; and I tell you, I have seen dirtier, worse cooked and worse looking, and a deal of a sight smaller breakfast than this is a great many times.

The weary hungry and sulky man laid down his tools, swallowed the bite in transitu, and modestly looking up at the fuming landlord, exclaimed:

Is what you say true?

Yes, sir.

Well, then, I'll be blamed if you hain't out travelled me.

Wants to Know.—A youth who has the fear of the law before his eyes wonders in the following style:

I wonder why mamma keeps Bridget at home from church all day, and says it is wicked for me to build my rabbit house on Sunday?

I wonder why our minister bought that pretty cane with the yellow lion's head on top and then asked me for my cent to put in the missionary box? Don't I want a jewsharp just as much as he wanted a cane?

I wonder what makes pa tell such nice stories to visitors about his hiding the master's rattan when he went to school, and about his running away from the school mistress when she was going to whip him, and then shut me up all day in a dark room because I tried once to be as smart as he was?

I wonder why mamma tells papa he is cross when he comes home at night and says his tea is weak, and ties my handkerchief over my mouth so that I can neither speak nor breathe because I happen to say she is cross?

I wonder what made papa say that wicked word when Besy upset the ink all over his paper, and slapped my ears because I said the same thing when my kite string broke?

I wonder why minister-men make fun of spiritual people, and say there ain't no ghost, and then say the devil goeth about like a roaring lion, only you can't see him, devouring bad boys?

I wonder why mamma told Bridget the other day to say she wasn't at home when Tommy Day's mother called, and then puts me to bed without my supper when I tell a lie?

Oh dear! there are lots of things that I want to know! How I wish I were a man!

By a new method of locomotion, a speed of six miles a minute is obtained, and capitalists are besieging the British Government to allow them to construct lines for passengers and traffic through all parts of London. The London Examiner exclaims on this: "Happy, although unconscious posterity! We envy you; we must crawl through life at the snail's pace of only a mile in two minutes, oftentimes less, while for you awaits the ecstatic bliss of being shot through space at the rate of three hundred and sixty miles per hour."

A Mormon Sermon.—A writer in the Atlantic gives the following specimen of a Mormon sermon, illustrating the style in which uneducated and inspired preachers quote Scripture:

The text was Isaiah iv I: "And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man." "Seven women shall take a hold o' one man! There!" (with a slap on the back of the nearest subject for conversion) "What d'ye think of that? Shall! Shall take hold on him! That don't mean they sha'nt, does it? No! God's word means what it says. And therefore means no otherwise,—not in no way, shape nor manner. Not in no way, for He saith, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life.' Not in no shape, for a man beholdeth his nat'ral shape in a glass; nor in no manner, for he straightway forgetteth what manner o' man he was. Seven women shall catch a hold on him. And ef they shall, then they will! For everything shall come to pass; and not one good word shall fall to the ground. You who try to explain away scriptur' would make it fig'rative. But don't come to me with none o' your spiritoalizers! Not one good word shall fall. Therefore seven shall not fall. And ef seven shall catch a hold on him,—and, as I jest proved, seven will catch a hold on him,—then seven ought,—and in the latter day glory, seven, yea, as our Lord said untew Peter, 'Verily I say untew you, not seven, but seventy times seven,' these seventy times seven shall catch a hold and cleave. Blessed day! For the end shall be even as the beginning, and seventy fold more abundantly."

A colored preacher within our lines recently felt constrained to preach against the extortions of the sutlers from which his flock had suffered. After much deliberation he announced his text as follows: "Now de serpent was more sutler than any beast of the field which de Lord God has made."

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

IODINE WATER.

Iodine water is the most important discovery of modern chemistry and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1858, page 75.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

STOMACH BITTERS.

The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the tired-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure for the maladies above-mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS.

And in every disease any way connected with the disorders or decay of the Procreative Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man. He stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.
